TOPIC Military Information from Prenzlau	not surev	Approved For Release 2009/01/26 : CIA-RDP80-00810A000100130009-0 Last Germany REPOR
DATE OF CONTENT. DATE ORIGINAL DATE OR DATE ORIGINAL DATE OR DATE	1
DATE OF CONTENT. DATE PREPARED 30 December 1952 25X1 25X1 1. From 3 to 15 November, personnel entrained at the railroad station at Premalau included: 200 soldiers on 3 November, 80 soldiers on 6 November, 70 moldiers on 9 November and 21 soldiers on 12 November. The soldiers were trained and included many NOOS, Fart of their bagrage had been trucked to the railroad station. A military band played mior to each proups' departure to the station. 150 soldiers marched to the railroad station and were entrained. Because of the arms and conduct of the soldiers numbered about 80.0 on 18 November, 25X1 150 soldiers marched to the railroad station and were entrained. Because of the arms and conduct of the soldiers numbered about 50 soldiers on 9 November, about 60 soldiers on 19 November, about 60 soldiers on 19 November, about 60 soldiers on 19 November and about 20 soldiers on 10 November, about 60 soldiers on 10 November and about 20 soldiers on 10 November, about 60 soldiers on 10 November and about 60 soldiers and bagrage and marched to the barracks installation. 2. At 0:15 p.m. on 7 November, about 2,600 soldiers including about 32 soldiers on 10 November, about 60 soldiers including about 32 soldiers on 10 November, about 60 soldiers including about 32 soldiers on 10 November, about 60 soldiers including about 32 soldiers on 10 November, about 60 soldiers had bagrage and marched to the barracks installation and the collected by flowner the premake installation at the company of premake installation and the collected by flowner the premake installation and the company of soldiers were engaged in resonditioning the training area south of the barracks installation southea	OPIC		encoma",
DATE ORIGINAL DATE ORIGINAL DATE PREPARED 30 December 1952 DATE PREPARED 30 December 1952 This is UNEVALUATED Information 25X1 1. From 3 to 15 November, personnel entrained at the railroad station at Preumlau included: 200 soldiers on 3 November, 80 soldiers on 6 November, 70 soldiers on 9 November and 2h soldiers on 12 November, The soldiers were trained and included many 1000, Part of their bagreen had been trucked to the railroad station. A military band played prite seah groups! departure to the station. 150 sold ers marched to the railroad station and were entrained. Because of the arms and endued to the soldiers membered about 50 soldiers on 3 November, about 65 soldiers on 3 November, about 65 soldiers on 3 November and about 50 soldiers on 3 November, about 65 soldiers on 10 November, about 65 soldiers on 10 November, about 65 soldiers on 10 November and about 50 soldiers on 10 November, about 65 soldiers on 10 November, about 65 soldiers included about 50 soldiers on 3 November, about 65 soldiers on 10 November, about 65 soldiers on 10 November, about 65 soldiers included about 50 soldiers on 3 November, about 65 soldiers including about 30 uniformed women, carried wreather and marched from the barracks installations to the Soviet monument at the town park three military bands played. They were followed by lieutenant Colonel Starikhin (fm) (phonetical spelling) (fmu) was com and in refiser at the barracks installations at 25X1 p.m. He returned to the installations at 25X1 p.m. He returned to the installations at 25X1 p.m. He was seen at the garages in the barracks installation southwast of Serliner Chaussee. John the barracks installation or others of Serliner Chaussee. John the barracks installation or others of Serliner Chaussee. John the barracks installation or others of Serliner Chaussee. John the barracks installation or others of Serliner Chaussee. John the barracks installation or others of Serliner Chaussee. John the barracks installation or others of Serliner Chaussee. John the barracks	EVALUATION_	PLACE OBTAINED	25X1
DATE ORIGINAL DATE ORIGINAL DATE PREPARED 30 December 1952 DATE PREPARED 30 December 1952 This is UNEVALUATED Information 25X1 1. From 3 to 15 November, personnel entrained at the railroad station at Preumlau included: 200 soldiers on 3 November, 80 soldiers on 6 November, 70 soldiers on 9 November and 2h soldiers on 12 November, The soldiers were trained and included many 1000, Part of their bagreen had been trucked to the railroad station. A military band played prite seah groups! departure to the station. 150 sold ers marched to the railroad station and were entrained. Because of the arms and endued to the soldiers membered about 50 soldiers on 3 November, about 65 soldiers on 3 November, about 65 soldiers on 3 November and about 50 soldiers on 3 November, about 65 soldiers on 10 November, about 65 soldiers on 10 November, about 65 soldiers on 10 November and about 50 soldiers on 10 November, about 65 soldiers on 10 November, about 65 soldiers included about 50 soldiers on 3 November, about 65 soldiers on 10 November, about 65 soldiers on 10 November, about 65 soldiers included about 50 soldiers on 3 November, about 65 soldiers including about 30 uniformed women, carried wreather and marched from the barracks installations to the Soviet monument at the town park three military bands played. They were followed by lieutenant Colonel Starikhin (fm) (phonetical spelling) (fmu) was com and in refiser at the barracks installations at 25X1 p.m. He returned to the installations at 25X1 p.m. He returned to the installations at 25X1 p.m. He was seen at the garages in the barracks installation southwast of Serliner Chaussee. John the barracks installation or others of Serliner Chaussee. John the barracks installation or others of Serliner Chaussee. John the barracks installation or others of Serliner Chaussee. John the barracks installation or others of Serliner Chaussee. John the barracks installation or others of Serliner Chaussee. John the barracks installation or others of Serliner Chaussee. John the barracks	DATE OF CON	ITENT_
REMARKS This is UNEVALUATED Information 25x1 1. From 3 to 15 November, personnel entrained at the reilroad station at Prevalual included: 200 soldiers on 3 November, 80 soldiers on 6 November, 70 soldiers on 9 November and 2h soldiers on 12 November. The soldiers were trained and included many NOS, Part of their bagrage had been trucked to the railroad station. A military band played prior to each groups' departure to the station.		DATE PREPARED 30 December 1952
This is UNEVALUATED Information 1. From 3 to 15 November, personnel entrained at the railroad station at Premalau included: 200 soldiers on 3 November, 80 soldiers on 6 November, 70 soldiers on 9 November and 2h soldiers on 12 November. The soldiers were trained and included many NOS, Part of their bagrage had been trucked to the railroad station. A military band played prior to each groups' departure to the station. 150 sold ers marched to the railroad station and were entrained. Because of the arms and conduct of the soldiers 150 sold ers marched to the railroad station and were entrained. Because of the arms and conduct of the soldiers 150 sold ers marched to the railroad station and were entrained. Because of the arms and conduct of the soldiers 150 soldiers on 9 November, alouted about 50 soldiers on 3 November, about 70 soldiers on 9 November, about 60 soldiers on 11 November and about 20 noldiers on 12 November, about 60 soldiers on 11 November and about 20 noldiers on 12 November, about 60 soldiers included about 50 soldiers on 3 November, about 60 soldiers including about 30 uniformed women, carried weathes and marched from the barracks installations to the Solviet monument at the town park three military bands played. They were followed by Lieutenant Colonel Startikhin (fmu) (phonetical spelling), the town commander of Fremzlan, in sedan He returned to the installations at 2:30 p.m. [Lieutenant Colonel Bidenko (phonetical spelling) about 60 soldiers in the barracks installation and soldiers and two the barracks installations at 2:30 p.m. [Lieutenant Colonel Russin (fmu). 3. On h November, two trucks, each carrying one heavy machine gun and two heavy mortars, and 6 x 76-mm guns were seen at the garages in the barracks installation southeast of Berliner Chaussee on the same day. Small groups of a litiers were engaged in reconditioning the training area sout of the barracks installation sorutheast of Berliner Chaussee. Jthers were engaged in maintenance work at the installation. 25x1 25x1 25x1
This is UNEVALUATED Information 25x1 1. From 3 to 15 November, personnel entrained at the railroad station at Prenzian included: 200 soldiers on 3 November, 80 soldiers on 6 November, 70 soldiers on 9 November and 21 soldiers on 12 Novembor. The soldiers were trained and included many NO3, Part of their baggae had been trucked to the railroad station. A military band played prior to each groups' departure to the station. the soldiers murbored about 800.0 on 11 November, 25x1
This is UNEVALUATED Information 25X1 1. From 3 to 15 Movember, personnel entrained at the railroad station at Prenzlau included: 200 soldiers on 3 November, 80 soldiers on 6 November, 70 soldiers on 9 November and 2h soldiers on 12 November. The soldiers were trained and included many NCOs, Part of their bagrage had been trucked to the railroad station. A military band played prior to each groups' departure they were discharged home. 150 soldiers marched to the railroad station and were entrained. Because of the arms and conduct of the soldiers of t			-
1. From 3 to 15 November, personnel entrained at the realroad station at Premalau included: 200 soldiers on 3 November, 70 soldiers on 6 November, 70 soldiers on 9 November and 21 soldiers on 12 November. The soldiers were trained and included many NGOs, Part of their baggage had been trucked to the railroad station. A military band played prior to each groups' departure to the station. 150 sold ers marched to the soldiers numbered about 800. On 11 November, 150 soldiers marched to the soldiers numbered about 800. On 11 November, 25X1 leave personnel nor dischargees. Personnel unloaded during the period under observation and, usually unarroad, included about 50 soldiers on 10 November, about 76 soldiers on 9 November, about 60 soldiers in 11 November and about 20 soldiers on 12 November. All the soldiers had baggage and marched to the barracks installation. 2. At 0:15 p.m. on 7 November, about 2,600 soldiers including about 32 uniformed women, carried wreathes and marched from the barracks installations to the Soviet monument at the town park; three military bands played. They were followed by liqutenant Colonel Starikhin (fnu) (phonetical spelling), the town commander of Frenziau, in sedan 2:30 p.m. [Heutenant Colonel Didenko (phonetical spelling) (fnu) was commanding officer at the barracks installation northwest of berliner Chaussee. He was superior to Lieutenant Colonel Kusmin (fnu). 3. On 1 November, two trucks, each carrying one heavy machine gun and two heavy mortars, and 8 x 76-mm guns were seen at the sarages in the barracks installation southeast of Berliner Chaussee. JS-2 tank was seen at the barracks installation was entered in reconditioning the training area sout of the barracks installation southeast of Berliner Chaussee. Jthers were engaged in reconditioning the training area sout of the barracks installation southeast of Berliner Chaussee. Jthers were engaged in manitenance work at the installation. 25X1 1. Comment. 25X1 2	REMARKS
1. From 3 to 15 November, personnel entrained at the realroad station at Premalau included: 200 soldiers on 3 November, 70 soldiers on 6 November, 70 soldiers on 9 November and 21 soldiers on 12 November. The soldiers were trained and included many NGOs, Part of their baggage had been trucked to the railroad station. A military band played prior to each groups' departure to the station. 150 sold ers marched to the soldiers numbered about 800. On 11 November, 150 soldiers marched to the soldiers numbered about 800. On 11 November, 25X1 leave personnel nor dischargees. Personnel unloaded during the period under observation and, usually unarroad, included about 50 soldiers on 10 November, about 76 soldiers on 9 November, about 60 soldiers in 11 November and about 20 soldiers on 12 November. All the soldiers had baggage and marched to the barracks installation. 2. At 0:15 p.m. on 7 November, about 2,600 soldiers including about 32 uniformed women, carried wreathes and marched from the barracks installations to the Soviet monument at the town park; three military bands played. They were followed by liqutenant Colonel Starikhin (fnu) (phonetical spelling), the town commander of Frenziau, in sedan 2:30 p.m. [Heutenant Colonel Didenko (phonetical spelling) (fnu) was commanding officer at the barracks installation northwest of berliner Chaussee. He was superior to Lieutenant Colonel Kusmin (fnu). 3. On 1 November, two trucks, each carrying one heavy machine gun and two heavy mortars, and 8 x 76-mm guns were seen at the sarages in the barracks installation southeast of Berliner Chaussee. JS-2 tank was seen at the barracks installation was entered in reconditioning the training area sout of the barracks installation southeast of Berliner Chaussee. Jthers were engaged in reconditioning the training area sout of the barracks installation southeast of Berliner Chaussee. Jthers were engaged in manitenance work at the installation. 25X1 1. Comment. 25X1 2	-	- STATE OF THE CONTROL OF T
1. From 3 to 15 November, personnel entrained at the realroad station at Premalau included: 200 soldiers on 3 November, 70 soldiers on 6 November, 70 soldiers on 9 November and 21 soldiers on 12 November. The soldiers were trained and included many NGOs, Part of their baggage had been trucked to the railroad station. A military band played prior to each groups' departure to the station. 150 sold ers marched to the soldiers numbered about 800. On 11 November, 150 soldiers marched to the soldiers numbered about 800. On 11 November, 25X1 leave personnel nor dischargees. Personnel unloaded during the period under observation and, usually unarroad, included about 50 soldiers on 10 November, about 76 soldiers on 9 November, about 60 soldiers in 11 November and about 20 soldiers on 12 November. All the soldiers had baggage and marched to the barracks installation. 2. At 0:15 p.m. on 7 November, about 2,600 soldiers including about 32 uniformed women, carried wreathes and marched from the barracks installations to the Soviet monument at the town park; three military bands played. They were followed by liqutenant Colonel Starikhin (fnu) (phonetical spelling), the town commander of Frenziau, in sedan 2:30 p.m. [Heutenant Colonel Didenko (phonetical spelling) (fnu) was commanding officer at the barracks installation northwest of berliner Chaussee. He was superior to Lieutenant Colonel Kusmin (fnu). 3. On 1 November, two trucks, each carrying one heavy machine gun and two heavy mortars, and 8 x 76-mm guns were seen at the sarages in the barracks installation southeast of Berliner Chaussee. JS-2 tank was seen at the barracks installation was entered in reconditioning the training area sout of the barracks installation southeast of Berliner Chaussee. Jthers were engaged in reconditioning the training area sout of the barracks installation southeast of Berliner Chaussee. Jthers were engaged in manitenance work at the installation. 25X1 1. Comment. 25X1 2
1. From 3 to 15 November, personnel entrained at the railroad station at Preuzlau included: 200 soldiers on 3 November, 80 soldiers on 6 November, 70 soldiers on 9 November and 21 soldiers on 12 November. Soldiers were trained and included many NCOs, Part of their bagrage had been trucked to the railroad station. A military band played prior to each groups' departure to the station. 150 soldiers marched to the railroad station and were entrained. Because of the arms and conduct of the soldiers included about $60.0 on 11 November, about 76 soldiers on 9 November, about 50 soldiers on 11 November, about 76 soldiers on 9 November, about 60 soldiers on 11 November, about 76 soldiers on 9 November, about 60 soldiers had bagrage and marched to the barracks installation. 2. At 0:15 p.m. on 7 November, about 2,600 soldiers including about 32 uniformed women, carried wreathes and marched from the barracks installations to the Soviet monument at the town park; three military bands played. They were followed by Lieutenant Colonel Starikhin (fnu) (phonetical spelling), the town commander of Fremzlau, in sedan 2:30 p.m. Heretured to the installations at 25X1 2:30 p.m. Lieutenant Colonel Didenko (phonetical spelling) (fnu) was commanding officer at the barracks installation northwest of berliner Chaussee. He was superior to Lieutenant Colonel Lieutenin found two heavy mortars, and 8 x 76-mm guns were seen at the garages in the barracks installation southeast of Berliner Chaussee. JS-2 tank was seen at the barracks installation southeast of Berliner Chaussee. The same day, Small groups of a claiers were engaged in reconditioning the training area south of the barracks installation southeast of Berliner Chaussee. The same day, Small groups of a claiers were engaged in reconditioning the training area south of the barracks installation southeast of Berliner Chaussee. These were engaged in maintenance work at the installation. 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1		This is UNEVALUATED Information
Prenglau included: 200 soldiers on 3 November, 80 soldiers on 6 November, 70 soldiers on 9 November and 2h soldiers on 12 November. The soldiers were trained and included many NOs, Part of their bagrage had been trucked to the railroad station. A military band played prior to each groups' departure to the station. The soldiers numbered about 800. On 1h November, 25x1 the arms and conduct of the soldiers numbered about 800. On 1h November, 25x1 leave personnel nor dischargees. Personnel unlosded during the period under observation and, usually unarmed, included about 50 soldiers on 3 November, about 76 soldiers on 9 November, about 60 soldiers on 11 November and about 20 soldiers on 12 November. All the soldiers had bagrage and marched to the barracks installation. 2. At 0:15 p.m. on 7 November, about 2,600 soldiers including about 32 uniformed women, carried wreathes and marched from the barracks installations to the Soviet monument at the town park; three military bands played. They were followed by Lieutenant Colonel Starikhin (fmu) (phonetical spelling), the town commander of Prenglau, in sedan Hereturned to the installations at 2:30 p.m. Heutenant Colonel Didenko (phonetical spelling) (fmu) was commander officer at the barracks installation northwest of Ferliner Chaussee. Jet 2 tank was seen at the barracks installation southeast of Berliner Chaussee. Jet 2 tank was seen at the barracks installation southeast of Berliner Chaussee. Jet 2 tank was seen at the barracks installation southeast of Berliner Chaussee. Jet 2 tank was seen at the barracks installation southeast of Berliner Chaussee. Jet 2 tank was seen at the barracks installation southeast of Berliner Chaussee. Jet 2 tank was seen at the barracks installation southeast of Berliner Chaussee. Jet 2 tank was seen at the barracks installation southeast of Berliner Chaussee. Jet 2 tank was seen at the barracks installation southeast of Berliner Chaussee. Jet 2 tank was seen at the barracks installation southeast of Berliner Chaussee. Jet 2 tank was s		2	25 X 1
mortars, and 8 x 76-mm guns were seen at the garages in the barracks installation southeast of Berliner Chaussee. JS-2 tank was seen at the barracks 25X1 installation northwest of Berliner Chaussee on the same day. Small groups of soldiers were engaged in reconditioning the training area south of the barracks installation southeast of Berliner Chaussee. Others were engaged in maintenance work at the installation. 25X1 1. Comment. probably the exchange of personnel of units of the 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 1. Comment. probably the exchange of personnel of units of the 25X1		Prenzlau included: 200 soldiers on 3 November, 80 soldiers on 6 November, 70 soldiers on 9 November and 2h soldiers on 12 November. The soldiers were trained and included many NCOs, Part of their baggage had been trucked to the railroad station. A military band played prior to each groups' departure to the station. the soldiers numbered about 800. On 1h November, 20 the arms and conduct of the railroad station and were entrained. Because of the arms and conduct of the soldiers they were neither leave personnel nor dischargees. Personnel unloaded during the period under observation and, usually unarmed, included about 50 soldiers on 3 November, about 76 soldiers on 9 November, about 60 soldiers on 11 November and about 20 soldiers on 12 November. All the soldiers had baggage and marched to the barracks installation. At 0:15 p.m. on 7 November, about 2,600 soldiers including about 32 uniformed women, carried wreathes and marched from the barracks installations to the Soviet monument at the town park; three military bands played. They were followed by Lieutenant Colonel Starikhin (fnu) (phonetical spelling), the town commander of Prenzlau, in sedan 2:30 p.m. Lieutenant Colonel Didenko (phonetical spelling) (fnu) was commanding officer at the barracks installation northwest of berliner Chaussee. He was superior to Lieutenant Colonel Kusmin (fnu).	25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1
U.S.S.R. had terminated on about 6 November, there is a possibility that recruits may have arrived later, coming either from the replacement center of 4th Gds Mecz Army or from the division in Granienburg.		mortars, and 8 x 76-mm guns were seen at the garages in the barracks installation southeast of Berliner Chaussee. JS-2 tank was seen at the barracks installation northwest of Berliner Chaussee on the same day. Small groups of soldiers were engaged in reconditioning the training area south of the barracks installation southeast of Berliner Chaussee. Others were engaged in maintenance work at the installation. ² 25 Comment probably the exchange of personnel of units of the	5X1 X1
CLASSIFICATION SECRET,		U.S.S.R. had terminated on about 6 November, there is a possibility that recruits may have arrived later, coming either from the replacement center of
		CLASSIFICATION SECRET,

É

	SECRETY - 2 -	25 X ′
		25 X ′
2.	Comment. The present report indicates no changes in the occupation of the barracks installation southeast and northwest of Berliner Chanssee since the previous report in late October 1952.	25X1
	Lieutenant Colonel Kusmin (fnu) probably is surely officer of the 83d Gds Hv Tank SP Regt of the 25th Tank Div. Lieutenant Colonel Didenko (fnu) was reported for the first time; he possibly is an	25 X 1
, т	administrative officer superior to Kusmin or commanding officer of the regiment.	25X1

SFCRET/